MUNITIONS SOLD TO OBREGON IN CAUSE OF PEACE

PERSONAL POLITICS AT FAULT IN MEXICO, SAYS HUGHES

Refusal of Arms Would Have Aided Revolt Against Government, Claim.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

New York.—The policy of the Coolidge administration in dealing with the Mexican revolutionary movement was described by Secretary Hughes in an address here yesterday, as "the greatest contribution directed within our power, and in accord with our established traditions and manifest interest, in the cause of world peace."

"This hemisphere should be the exemplar of peace," Mr. Hughes said, "and we look with confidence of the American republics against the use of force in political controversies. To this end the United States gladly gives its cooperation."

Matter of Politics.

"It is not a revolution distinct with the aspirations of an oppressed people; it is a matter of personal politics. It is an effort to seize the presidency, to secure a succession of all constitutional and orderly procedure. The contestants, seeking to overthrow the established government, have taken possession of certain portions of the Mexican territory and other are claiming tribute from peaceful and legitimate American commerce or are attempting to obstruct and destroy it."

Mr. Hughes then touched on the request of the Mexican government to purchase arms and ammunition from the United States. "To refuse," he said, "would have been to turn a cold shoulder to the government recently restored to friendly relations and would in fact have given powerful encouragement to those who are attempting to seize the reins of government by force."

Holds to Principle.

By that course, he said the Washington government would have "fin-

BEAUTY CHARGES THAT SHE WAS DRUGGED, CARRIED AWAY AND DETAINED AS PRISONER

Three views of Mrs. Helen French.

New York.—In Mrs. Helen French the victim of a favored imagination. New York is wondering at it rumormongers over one of the most sensational suits filed here in years.

She was drugged with morphine, spirited away while dazed to two different sanitariums and forcibly detained as a prisoner in an effort to force her into silence regarding an intrigue of her mother's. Mrs. French asserts in an action for $1,000,000 damages.

Her mother is designated in the papers under two names—Helen E. French and Mrs. William W. Stevenson. William W. Stevenson, controller of the Mutual Life Insurance Co., and Dr. Joseph H. Cahoon, prominent physician, are named as defendants.

All three deny her charges. "Preposterously false," they say.

COOLIDGE FIGHTS FOR SURTAX PLAN IN MELLON BILL

COMPROMISE OF REPUBLICANS WITH DEMOCRATS NOT PLEASING.

White House Silent on This Point—High Surtaxes Have Lessened Revenue.

Washington.—President Coolidge has entered the fight between Secretary Mellon and congress on tax reduction and gives promise of staying in it till the very end.

The president has been watching with passive interest this war between the secretary of the treasury and various members of congress, all of whom are in the hands of the tax cutters. Mr. Coolidge has been taken back by the firm response of the chief executive. He will not compromise the tax bill out of his hands.

Mr. Coolidge takes pains to make it clear he is not standing by the treasury proposal with respect to every detail. He expects changes to be made that will improve the measure. He doesn't object to amendments which may represent merely a difference of viewpoint on administration of the tax measure but he is distinctly opposed to any change that debilitates the measure.

Radical Miners Badly Beaten in Tilt With Lewis

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Indianapolis.—Chafing under the defeat administered them at every turn yesterday, radical delegates returned to the United Mine Workers convention today with the announced intention of continuing their fight against President John L. Lewis, and the administration's conservative policies.

One of their spokesmen, sub-district Secretary John Watt, Springfield, Ill., said he or some other delegate would gain the floor sometime and would then deliver a speech against what the radicals describe as "the steam roller methods of Lewis."

President Lewis smiled at the charges and noted the assigning of two of the items for which the radicals had presented resolutions.

Another development today was the appearance in the convention hall of Mrs. Tom Mooney, whose husband is still serving a sentence in San Quentin prison, as a result of the preparedness bombing in San Francisco. Mrs. Mooney called on President Lewis and explained she wished to be heard; that a new governor has been elected in California, and a new petition is in preparation to present to him, asking release of Tom Mooney.

President Lewis advised her to meet the resolutions committee.

BUTLER OPENS GRAFT DRIVE AMONG POLICE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Philadelphia.—Brig. General Butler, director of public safety, started another drive today, this time against all forms of graft in his own department.

Detectives and policemen who have been in the habit of demanding bribes or accepting money for returning stolen property to its owners, or who have benefited through other forms of petty graft, will be forced out of the service, he said. They are to be put to practice, Director Butler declared.

Insurance companies were notified today that in future policemen will not be permitted to accept rewards for the recovery of stolen automobiles.

TWO MISSING IN MILWAUKEE

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Milwaukee.—An investigation by George Schaeffgen, district attorney, was started here today into the disappearance of Mrs. Angelina Tobola, 36 and her daughter, Geraldine, 4, on the afternoon of January 19.

Demand for the investigation was made by John Ossowski, brother of the missing woman, who told the district attorney that he was not satisfied with the story of disappearance as told by Tobola. The latter reported the case to the police Sunday.

According to Tobola, his wife visited a securities company during the afternoon of the day she disappeared and from there she was taken to the hotel where she was held. This visit has been verified but Tobola says he has not seen her since.

EDUCATION, HELD OBJECT OF FAIRS

Knowledge for Persons Denied Full Schooling Should Be Aim—Remy.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Oshkosh.—County, district and state fairs should be so managed that the 66 percent of the total American population, who do not advance as far as the high school, will be able to derive as much knowledge as possible of what they have been compelled to miss in schools and colleges, declared Oshkosh, Wis., secretary of the Wisconsin State fair, before the annual convention of the Wisconsin Association of Fairs, here today.

A glance at some startling figures recently made public by students of education, Mr. Remy added, "brings home the fact that, while the fair should be for everyone, it should be especially conducted for those citizens who have not had higher educational training."

The figures show, according to the statistics of the Wisconsin State, out of every 100 boys and girls who enter fifth grade in the common schools, but two later are graduated from colleges and universities. Of the hundred who enter the fifth grade, only 63 reach eighth grade, and but 34 reach first year high school; 24, the second year, and 18, the third year.

Statistical proposition in another way, the speaker recited, but one family in three enters a boy or girl in high school and but one family in 50 manages to see its child through college.

MELLON TAX BILL WARMLY DEFENDED

Excessive Rates of Taxation Unproductive, Declares

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington.—Secretary Mellon's program for tax reduction was defended today in the house of representatives by Representative Mills of New York, a republican member of the ways and means committee, which is engaged in framing a revenue bill.

Mr. Mills argued vigorously for the reduction in surtax rates to a maximum of 44 percent, while further reducing normal income taxes as "limiting the benefits of tax reduction to three million individuals."

"The Mellon plan proposes relief for the small income tax payers, while the present plan proposes a reduction of surtaxes on higher incomes, not for the benefit of the few individuals who pay them, but because from the standpoint of the United States government they are unproductive and uncollectible, and from the standpoint of the welfare and prosperity of all of our people, are uneconomic and harmful."

"Shut one door," he said, "and another will be found. The fundamental fact is that taxation at excessive rates is unproductive."

CANCELLATION OF OIL LEASE WOULD BALK INQUIRIES

CARAWAY MOVE CHECK ON INVESTIGATION, IS EXPLANATION.

DAUGHERTY IS HIT

Certain Democratic Senators Hold Official Wrong Man to Push Action.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

Washington.—E. L. Daugherty, California oil operator, testified today before the senate "Treaty Dome" committee that he had been offered $100,000 to force Interior Secretary Albert B. Fall, Nov. 30, 1921.

The purpose of the loan, Daugherty said, was to enable Fall to make a ranch holding in New Mexico.

He added that the loan was made by him personally and the money was to be paid to Fall in company in which he is interested.

Daugherty declared that during negotiations he had no knowledge of any contract between the government and any of the Daugherty interests and that the loan had no connection with any subsequent transaction relating to oil leases.

"The witness told the committee that no officer of his company knew anything about the loan that it was purely a personal matter."

Daugherty said he left Los Angeles, Jan. 17, to leave the information concerning his loan to the committee and that he traveled via New Orleans to arrive in Fall's intention. He added that Fall was "in full accord with his purpose."

"The reason for my making the loan," Daugherty said, "was that I had been friends for more than 30 years. His troubles had been increased in 1918 by the death of his daughter and his wife, who had been taken and taken his place in the management of his ranch."

When Mr. Daugherty concluded, his attorney, George F. Walsh, requested to appoint a board of experts to examine all facts regarding the contract.

Washington.—If the attempt of Senator Caraway to have the Treaty Dome leases canceled at once succeeds, its effect will be to displace the public lands commission and the investigation with no one found responsible or guilty.

This was explained by Chairman Fenwick Wednesday afternoon and support for Senator Walsh, democrat. Developments came slowly after the decision to have Fall present for testimony. Harry Smith, in public lands commission, had no more testimony to the committee and that it was "damned nonsense."

The son-in-law of Senator Fall, at El Paso, in an interview stated he had some of the $100,000 deposited to the credit of Secretary Fall, having been given to him by the state lands commission. He said it was another son-in-law who had written the committee that the $100,000 had been advanced to Fall by him.

The son-in-law of Senator General Daugherty has been brought into the case several times, not as a participant in the deal for the leases but as a friend of Fall. Daugherty would have the charges in investigation and trial of Fall should the charges get as far as criminal procedure.

Certain democratic senators do not believe Daugherty on account of friendship, would be the man to do the work.

"FLAMING YOUTH" FILM IS SEIZED

Picture Declared Violently Immoral in Quebec; Theater Owner Arrested.

Quebec.—Seizure of the film, "Flaming Youth," as violently immoral and arrest of the Quebec theater owner who exhibited the picture—will after the provincial board of censors, and the Quebec board of censors, have given the ancient city of Quebec something to gossip about.

It is doubtful which is the greater sensation—the seizure of the picture or the recent edict of Cardinal Begin forbidding modern dancing and exhibitions of dress, and the Quebec board of censors, have given the ancient city of Quebec something to gossip about.

The theater owner, appearing for trial, pleaded that the provincial board of censors had given the picture a license and that the provincial board of censors had given the picture a license and that the provincial board of censors had given the picture a license.

Whole Truth Not Told, Says Slayer in Prison Letter

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE]

Elkhorn.—From within the walls of the Wisconsin state penitentiary, where a man accused of murder should spend the rest of his natural life as punishment for the murder of his pal, Edward Thielman, to which he confessed, Fred L. McBride, 23, corner East Troy farm hand, has written a letter to his attorney Roscoe Luce, Elkhorn, which may throw a new light on the "Mystery of Miracle Creek."

Attorney Luce admitted Thursday that he had received a letter from the convict, which, should it prove correct, may tend to prove McBride innocent. Mr. Luce is busy in preparation of the trial of Mrs. Myrtle Schaefer, charged with first degree murder for poisoning her husband, and will be unable to investigate the allegations made by McBride until after the trial, next month. It is understood McBride claims the whole truth concerning the crime, which should be heard in Jefferson county, has not been told.

McBride's arrest and confession in February, 1922, solved the mystery which developed with the finding of the body of Edward Thielman, 24, Iacine, in the waters of Miracle Creek near Malnauy, Dec. 15, 1921. He confessed, Feb. 24, that he had shot Thielman, his former pal and fellow employee, Nov. 20, 1921. For weeks after a trapper found the body in the creek, the identity of the dead man was unknown, and the body was recognized by the mother of the boy.

RECOGNITION OF SOVIET EXPECTED IN LONDON SOON

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS]

London.—Prime Minister MacDonald's recent denunciation of the "pomposity folly" of withholding full recognition of soviet Russia has produced a change in the attitude of the new government in that direction, and it is stated unofficially that James O'Grady, M. P., already is being considered for the post of British ambassador to Moscow.

Mr. O'Grady, who holds one of the Leeds seats in the house of commons has made a study of Russian affairs. He visited Moscow early in 1917 and again in 1922 in connection with the trade union famine relief movement.

His appointment of Miss Margaret Bondfield to the secretaryship of the ministry of labor, thus making her the first woman to have a place in the British government, is favorably received. There is some surprise that Miss Bondfield did not get a position of cabinet rank, but it is said she herself did not wish this distinction.

N. W. ROAD ASSAILS CAB CURTAIN LAW

Suit Filed as Test; Regulations Dangerous, Is Contention.

Madison.—An attack on constitutionality of the state law passed by the last legislature authorizing the state railroad commission to issue regulations for placing curtains on cabs of railroad locomotives was started in circuit court here today when the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Company filed suit to set aside a recent order of the commission.

The railroad company in its petition contends that the act is unconstitutional and that the regulations prescribed by the commission are dangerous and unsatisfactory. It also is contended that the state commission has no authority to require compliance with the regulations on interstate trains.

The cab curtain law was enacted after an extended campaign by labor unions of the state to obtain legislation for protection of firemen and engine men. The railroad commission's recent order directed all railroads in the state to equip their locomotives with certain types of curtains during cold weather.

MILK CONFERENCE IN CHICAGO TODAY

Rock County Committee Presents Case Before Producers' Agents in Chicago.

Despite the fact that the milk price question has been settled for January, February and March, it is clear that the dove of peace has not yet found a permanent perch in the Chicago marketing tangle.

Wisconsin producers, especially those in Rock county, will protest a $2.20 price for the next two months. The producers in the Chicago belt, it is declared, are refusing to sign a yearly contract with the dealers binding them to the present or "prevailing price."

Demand Chicago Price. This week H. C. Hemmingsway, secretary of the Rock county Farm Bureau, Charles Shoomaker, Janesville; H. O. Natesa, Clinton; Park Ames and William Crocker, Brooklyn, were in Chicago, meeting with the agents of the producers' association and seeking to have the true Chicago fluid milk price effective for southern Wisconsin.

They were informed that the dealers and representatives of the producers would meet Thursday in Chicago to settle this and other existing issues. Contracts have been sent out by one dairy company on a yearly basis and it is claimed objections were offered to this plan by the producers. The most of these year contracts were then withdrawn. Herman Bundesen, Chicago health commissioner, is the mediator between the dealers and producers and is seeking to enforce the full provisions of the strike settlement terms.

Farmers Organize. "They told us in Chicago that if there is any surplus milk it was created by the surplus taken in during the strike," declared Secretary H. C. Hemmingsway. "We were told Wisconsin milk was entitled to full Chicago price."

Brooklyn now has 140 dairymen in an association, with 80 signed up in Clinton and 75 in Janesville with the

The Cost of a Car

is no measure of its value

These are the things to consider

THE cost of a car depends in large part on volume and efficiency. It is no criterion of value.

Studebaker builds 150,000 fine cars yearly. All of them are Sixes. The main costs are divided by that enormous output. Thus at prices of $975 and up we offer the utmost in quality. We offer maximum values.

Don't judge these cars by prices. Under other conditions they might cost twice as much, yet offer less than these.

Some major costs

Quality cars require costly facilities. Studebaker has $50,000,000 invested in modern plants and equipment. $8,000,000 in drop forge plants alone. $10,000,000 in body plants, to carry out the Studebaker standards.

There are 12,500 up-to-date machines employed to build these cars. Some are enormously expensive.

Few outputs justify such facilities. Then parts must be bought outside, and profits paid to others.

Studebaker engineering costs $500,000 per year. That to us is $3.33 per car.

Our Department of Research and Experiment employs 125 skilled men. It makes 500,000 tests per year to maintain our standards.

Our Bureau of Methods and Standards fixes the requirements for every part and detail. 12,000 inspections are necessary for each car to insure against flaws and mistakes. We employ 1,000 men to make them. Cars like the Studebakers cannot be built without such facilities, such research, such care. Yet enormous output alone makes them possible at Studebaker prices.

The best we know

Studebakers represent the best we know. And with our army of engineers, with our wealth of experience, we probably know what is best.

We use 35 formulas for steels. Each is best suited to certain parts, as proved by years of tests.

On some steels we pay the makers a bonus of 15% to get them exactly right. There is no room to excel us there.

We machine the entire surface of each crank shaft, as was done on Liberty Airplane Motors. That extra cost is heavy. But thus we get ations, including 15 coats of paint and varnish.

Open cars have real leather cushions. They cost, over imitation leather, about $25 per car.

No closed cars could be more luxurious. That lining of Chase Mohair is made from the soft fleece of Angora goats. A velvet lining would save about two-thirds that cost—up to $100 per car.

Note how every detail denotes infinite care. That, as you know, is expensive.

Note the completeness of our larger models. The nickel-plated bumpers, extra disc wheels with cord tires, a steel trunk, a courtesy light. These are rare extras, even on the costliest cars.

Nothing is stinted

Compare part by part with any rival cars. Studebaker will show you some scores of advantages.

Then consider Studebaker history. For 72 years this name has stood for quality. When people rode in carriages, Studebaker built the best. Now those same traditions are applied to motor cars alone.

Consider Studebaker records. Mark how these cars in service have multiplied demand, until people last year paid $200,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

* * *

Consider their service records. One Studebaker car, built in 1918, has run 475,000 miles. It is still in active service. It lately made a mid-winter trip from Los Angeles to New York. That means 80 years of average service, of 6,000 miles per year.

What more can you dream of in a motor car than the Studebakers offer?

Just Go and See

Studebaker is today the leader in the fine-car field.

Studebaker builds more quality cars than any other concern in the world.

Buyers of fine cars last year spent over $200,000,000 for Studebaker models.

The demand for Studebakers has almost trebled in three years—as people found them out.

Then go see them. Compare them with any car you will. Don't spend $1,000 or over without knowing what Studebaker offers. You owe that to yourself.

that perfect balance, that absence of vibration.

We use more Timken bearings than any other car which costs under $5,600. They cost considerably more than ball bearings.

These facts apply to all Studebakers, of all styles and sizes. The materials used in all classes are alike.

Beauty—Luxury—Finish

The Studebaker coach work has been famous for decades. No one can excel it.

The finish is produced by 26 oper-

Hair Like Mine

Has come to thousands in this easy way

By Edna Wallace Hopper

I found in France, many years ago, the greatest hair help science has discovered. My mother used it, and at 67 she had hair like mine today.

I have used it. My hair is the marvel of millions. It grows finer every year. I have never had falling hair or dandruff, never a touch of gray. And now, at the age of 62, it is hair that most girls envy.

I have supplied this help to countless friends, and it brought them hair results. So I am convinced that it means to millions such hair as cannot come without it. And I am going to help those millions get it.

What experts say
This formula, perfected by French experts, is based on lifetimes of hair study. They gave me these reasons for its amazing results.

It combats the hardened oil and dandruff which clog the hair roots. They check the hair growth and destroy the hair. They choke the pigment which gives color to the hair.

Thus it cleans the scalp, then it stimulates and fertilizes hair thrives under these conditions, just as flowers thrive in a well-kept garden.

It cannot harm the hair. It does not affect hair color, natural or artificial. It deals only with the scalp—the soil of the hair. And all the results come through reviving the roots.

Quick and easy
I call this formula my Hair Youth. I apply it with an eye dropper directly to the scalp. This takes but a minute a day, and it does not muss the hair.

On feels at once its cleansing, stimulating action. And my own hair shows what it does for hair health and hair beauty.

Every dealer sells my Hair Youth under guarantee. If one bottle fails to delight you, he will return your money. I want every woman, without a penny of risk, to learn what my Hair Youth does.

Edna Wallace Hopper's Hair Youth is supplied by all druggists and toilet counters. Price, 60c and $1 with eye dropper. Also my Youth Cream, based on fruit. Also my Facial Youth—my famous liquid cleanser. Also my White Youth Cream, the last word in facial clay. My Beauty Book comes with each.

Try my Hair Youth at my risk. Do it now. The results are too fine to miss. Then I think you will want the other helps which did so much for me. And all of them are now at your command. Edna Wallace Hopper. Business address: 556 Lake Shore Drive, Chicago, Ill.

CONTRACT WITH BANKS RENEWED

Interest on daily balances of city money in the four depositories last year netted Janesville $12,000, according to a report of the department of finance. The interest was figured at the regular rate of 3 per cent.

City Manager Henry Traxler signed contracts, Wednesday afternoon, with all four banks of the city, renewing the 3 per cent rate for the city's money for the coming year.

The receipts from this source in 1923 are expected to total from $10,000 to $12,000. Two years ago when the bulk of the $100,000 high school bond issue was deposited in the banks, the city collected interest of $17,000 that year, setting a record.

The city's money is distributed equally among the four banks and efforts are made to keep it that way throughout the year by drawing checks on different banks each week.

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

Editor Gazette:
In regard to the Voice of the People Tuesday evening paper signed "Disputed" I would say that they should be disgusted, but with themselves for surely they never saw either of these pictures for they are both good moral pictures and far from being nasty as you call them and the picture at the Apollo Her Reputation should be seen by every one in Janesville and especially newspaper men for it goes to show how some poor innocent young person reputation can be run by gossip and big head lines in the paper or some reporter who wants to make a mark for himself when the party is absolutely innocent. Go and see these pictures they will do you good and I think our theaters are showing the best pictures and we surely do not want a censor for them. Don't judge it all by the adv. but go and see these pictures.

"What for?"

"Maybe I'll whistle it to Pap some day."

She shook a decisive head. "You needn't. The Hawkings are mine. I'll give them to you when they come up."

"Don't be a fool!" he exclaimed with impatience. "I don't know what you've done to you, but whatever it is, you can't take vengeance into your own hands. It's not your own."

She laughed shrilly. "Womanly! Womanly! What you know, what's womanly? I tell you it Pap Hawkings has helped there in the road in front of me, I'd kill him for the rat he is!"

"Here, here, you don't know what you're saying," he said reproachfully. "You're a bit upset, I guess."

"You're a bright lad. Go to the head of the class, 'Pap! A lot of you know about it. You think because you've cheated me twice—once with Thom and once with Pap and Hank—I'll give up, do you? You know about it. You think because I'll play even with that crowd, so if I don't."

"And you won't be around to stop me, either."

"You sure need a guardian," he told her emphatically. "But I expect you'll get over your crazy-headedness after you've had time to think about it. Time—yeah. That's all you need."

She shook her sullen head. "Time won't wash away what they did to me."

Derr, struck by what she said and the way she said it, turned his head and stared. "What on earth had the Hawkings done to her?" Derr was not inquisitive, but—

Her eyes sparkled with sudden anger. "You don't understand. You don't have to. It's none of your business."

"I expect you never were licked enough as a child," Derr informed her.

The lady chose to descend to personalities. "You're one of these know-it-all boys. Can't tell you a thing. No. Just because you don't see the reason for a thing, you think it can't be a good reason. I know your sort."

"Don't strain yourself," Derr urged her. "I'll take your word for the rest of it."

Scowling, she looked away from him. There a revolution of feeling swept over her. She was a little girl again, a very worried little girl, and her way was hard, and the world was wide, and this man was her only friend. She went, "Oh! Oh!" she sobbed, forlornly rubbing her eyes with her knuckles. "Oh, don't please me! I can't please you! I did—don't you know I'm crying!"

And then Derr, after the fashion of man when a woman bursts into tears, hastened to comfort her. Crowding his horse against hers, he

Dinner Stories

Two southern boys from a state that had been dry for years before national prohibition were on their way home after the denazification and whiled away the tedious hours of a hot day on the train by telling about France.

Neither of them had ever seen a saloon or touched a drop of any intoxicating beverage before he went to France.

"They got a drink over there they call cognac," said Tom. "They spell it c-o-g-n-a-c, but they pronounce it 'Me and Will, here, we tried some. They just give you about a thimbleful for a drink. We drank five or six of those and we were all right. It was beautiful, but for a few minutes we couldn't see good."

Way down East in New Hampshire, they tell the story of the carious Yankee. Telling to the carious Yankee a one armed horseman and rode with him.

The Yankee began a cross fire of prying questions. Finally the one armed stranger lost his patience. "My friend," he said, "I'll answer one more question and no more."

"All right," replied the Yankee, "how did you lose your arm?"

"It was bit off," replied the stranger.

They rode for a mile in silence before the Yankee remarked: "I'd give two dollars to know what bit it off."

A couple of clowns were speaking of a fellow member when one remarked:

"I dislike to say it, but really I regret that the most efficient young man I have ever met."

"What leads you to say that?"

"Why, last week, on the occasion of his birthday, he sent a collect message congratulating his mother."

Household Hints

MENU HINT

Orange Juice. Coldish Omelet. Bran Muffins. Coffee.

Luncheon.

Roasted Cheese Sandwiches. Applesauce. Gingerbread. Tea or Milk.

Dinner.

Broiled Sirloin Steak. Creamed Potatoes with Parsley. Boiled Onions Buttered. Caramel Custard. Coffee.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Coldish Omelet—Place a half a cup of coldish, put in cold water, let it come to a boil, add a generous teaspoon of vanilla, a little salt, beat brown sugar until it forms a syrup, add milk, yolks of eggs, salt and vanilla. Boil for five minutes. Add a little coldish. Let it stand until custard is set.

SUGGESTIONS

The stew made out of left-over roast will go much further if some paste dumplings are boiled and served with it.

Ventilate the rooms in which you sleep and work.

A clean newspaper placed every day on the shutters of the window where you put your dishes to heat saves many a disgusting mark on your table linen.

ABOUT GAS

To reduce your gas bills see to it that:

1. Your gas burning appliances are kept clean.

2. Boil them occasionally in a strong solution made by dissolving washing soda or lye in water. Rinse thoroughly with clean water and dry before using again. Do not put your hands in to the strong solution.

3. To prevent your oven linings from rusting so over them occasionally with a good neutral oil, being careful while the tip of the water heater as an insulator and considerably less gas is required to get hot water when the coils are clean. In case burners are covered or coated with soot, soot, etc., clean them off with a stiff brush either with burner in place or outside of water heater, if burner is readily removed.

4. To get the best results from the use of gas, observe the character of your flame. The flame tips on your gas range should be about three-quarters to one and one-quarter inches in height, while the tip of the water heater flame may vary due to the distance from the top of the burner to the lower coil. The tip of the flame should just touch the bottom of the bottom of pots and pans.

Heart and Home Problems

Letters May Be Addressed to Mrs. Thompson, in Care of the Gazette.

IT DOESN'T PAY

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a girl 21 and have been going with various young men of the same age, but I do not seem to appeal to them for any length of time. I am considered attractive but all my friends are engaged or married while I am left.

Perhaps I run after the boys too much when I don't intend to. My friends say it may be that, but I am very lonely. What can I do to gain their admiration?

DISAPPEARING BROWN EYES

It does not pay to run after boys. Perhaps that is your failing. If it is, you ought to realize that by scolding them away you only make yourself the more lonely. Men like to do their own courting and they take the initiative in courting, leaving the young man to call, suggesting places to go and rushing the matter as fast as she can. Let your young men friends seek you, and the more independent you are, the more likely they will be to keep on liking you after they have once taken an interest. At the age of 21 you have no reason to become alarmed even if your friends are engaged or married. You are still very young and if you use tact you will gain friends who will not desert you.

A TRIANGLE

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am a married woman 25 years of age. I have a darling little daughter four years old. I have been married six years and have learned to despise my husband.

There is another man in this town I love sincerely. I know he loves me and is willing to support my child if I could get a divorce from my husband. I cannot bear to spoil the career of my child, but I love this other man so. Tell me what to do.

PREPARED.

In your husband good to his child and does he make a good father? If you feel that your husband has earned his right to the little girl, I would not advise you to leave him. If you sacrificed her interest for your own you would never find happiness and would be unhappy all the rest of your life. Be just in your judgment of your husband. In case he is not a desirable parent and makes the home an unfit place for the child, you have reason to divorce him.

A VACILLATING LOVER

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My mother, knowing that I had broken off with my sweetheart, asked me to marry a very good girl that she liked very much, which I did to please mother, but I could not learn to love my mother and I told her so. She went back to her parents to stay. I still love my sweetheart dearly, but she is to be married to a young man she does not love, but her mother is afraid to let her go. I am more than ever and I am sorry for the trouble we had. Will I do the right thing taking her away from this young man, as I know he loves her very much? This girl knows that I am married and goes out with me at the present time.

G. A. D.

You are complimenting life for your own sake. You began with whom you came in contact by letting her many people influence you. When you drifted into marriage on your mother's suggestion and then did not love her, you began the process of weakening your own character. Now you are being influenced by the thought that your old sweetheart loves you and are letting her revive her interest in you, though you are married.

Good For Weak Eyes

The quick action of simple camphor, hydragric, witchhazel, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash astonishes people. One small bottle helps any one weak, sore or strained eyes. Aluminum eye cream, free. Write Drug Co. —Advertisement.

For Itching Torture

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and it is Zemo. It is a safe, antiseptic, liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 50c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skin. Zemo Soap, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c. —Advertisement.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James J. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work. A prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Altherin, to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed People's Drug Co. to dispense Altherin with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment.

Don't Let That Cold Turn Into "Flu"

Rub on Good Old Musterole.

That cold may turn into "Flu," Grippe or, even worse, Pneumonia, unless you take care of it at once. Rub good old Musterole on the congested parts and see how quickly it brings relief.

Colds are merely congestion, Musterole, made from pure oil of mustard, camphor, menthol and other simple ingredients, is a counter-irritant which stimulates circulation and helps break up the cold.

As effective as the messy old mustard plaster, does the work without blister.

Just rub it on with your fingertips. You will feel a warm tingle as it enters the pores, then a cooling sensation that brings welcome relief.

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Child's Musterole, 35c and 60c, jars and tubes.

Better Than A Mustard Plaster
